Experience Yarawi: Art of the Andes at Braddock Nights

Yarawi: Art of the Andes will take the stage at Ossian Hill Park on Thursday, July 13, 2006; at 7:30 p.m. as part of the free Braddock Nights concert series. The three member folk group plays traditional Andean music and is committed to the preservation of the art and culture of the Quechua and Aymara people. Yarawi, which means song of the corn, celebrates their musical heritage with panflutes, flutes, guitars and the ten string charango. You'll be transported to the mountains of South America as the band performs.

Ossian Hall Park is located at 7900 Heritage Drive, Annandale.

Concerts are held outdoors, so bring a picnic dinner and blankets, and sit back and enjoy the show. If there is a threat of bad weather call (703) 324-SHOW after 6 p.m. for cancellation updates.

Other Braddock Nights performances can be seen throughout the summer at Lake Accotink Park in Springfield and Royal Lake Park in the Kings Park West area.

Braddock Nights is made possible through the efforts of the Braddock District Supervisor, Friends of Braddock Nights, the Fairfax County Park Authority and the generous support of the local business community.

For more information about any of the summer series contact the Public Information Office at (703) 324-8662 or visit us online at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/parks/performances/>.
